Lee and Jim Vann Library

Photocopying of most materials is permitted, depending on their condition, within the library. Parts of the collection may have particular copying restrictions imposed by the institution or by copyright law. Entire collections cannot be copied, and large volume copying will be permitted only at the discretion of the Director or the professional staff.