Lee and Jim Vann Library

All formats of information should be considered for selection, providing the content falls within the guidelines given in this document. Consideration should, however, be given to the condition and durability of the materials. Materials which require special handling or which are delicate may not be appropriate for our collection.

Non-print materials will be added to the collections according to the same criteria as materials in print formats. Digital formats and other developing technologies may be added if they meet the guidelines of this policy.

The following will also be given consideration in the selection of non-print materials:

- Availability and expense of hardware required to use the item
- Cost
- Timeliness
- Technical quality
- Aesthetic appeal
- Ease of use
- Licensing Requirements
